

I understand that large radio and television owners are trying to lobby against XM radio broadcasting traffic and weather. This is a big mistake, XM radio must be able to continue to make these broadcasts to keep the market free and let the people decide what they want to listen to.